THOUSANDS DIE From Imperfect Digestion.

There is no reason why the public should be exposed to this danger, when the means of prevention can be readily plete cures after extreme suf-

EUPEPSIA TABLETS Cure Two More Cases of Dyspepsia of Long Standing.

Dowell, Tex., July 18, 1900.

Eupepsia Company, St. Louis, Mo.:
Gentlemen—For more than twenty years I have been suffering from indigestion, and my femily doctor failed to give me any relief, but your Tablets stopped my suffering, and I feel under many obligations to you,
Yours very truly,
B. H. JOHNSON.

Eupepsia Company, St. Louis, Mo.:
Gentlemen—I was so well pleased with that box of Eupepsia Tablets that I am writing you to let you know the results. I am now well and sound of dyspepsia and heartburn, which I had for about fifteen years. I feel like a new man. I am 40 years old. I thank you for your great relief. I will advise all my friends who are in need of a sure cure to try your medicine.
Yours very truly,
P. H. HOOK.

REFUBLIC SPECIAL
New York, Aug. 7.—Tom Sharkey, who received his quietus at the hands of Gus.
Ruhlin several weeks ago, is reported as engaged to be married some day this week.
It is not Mrs. Lilian Bauer, the handsome Chicago widow who, Mrs. Malaprop would have had you believe, is the object of Sharkey's love.

Perhaps she was at one time, but that was long ago, and then dame rumor has it that Tom "quit" when he heard that the object of his love had spoken Jokingly of his appearance.

The girl who is reported to have captured Sharkey's affection is Miss Jennie Tuttle, who is better known as "the Belle of Sheepshead Bay." She is the daughter of Fred Tuttle, a retirad sea captain, and is distantly related to the late John Y. McKane.

WERE FINALLY MARRIED.

St. Louis Couple's Experience in

Theodore Esders and Miss Annie Mehl of St. Louis, the story of whose matrimonial pilgrimage to Edwardsville was related in yesterday's Republic, are married at last. Miss Mehl, who, at the last moment Monday night, refused to allow the ceremony to proceed, placked up courage yesterday morning, and, with her affianced, weft to the residence of Doctor J. L. Cunningham on North Main street, where they well to the residence of Doctor 3. L. Canningham on North Main street, where they were married.

The couple left on the 9:55 train for St. Louis. They refused to tell anything about themselves in response to direct inquiries, but Esders told one man he was an employe of the Grand-Leader.

Esders and his wife left Edwardsville immediately after the ceremony, and on arriving here yesterday the couple went to the home of the bride's mother, at No. ISM Morgan street, but left after dinner. Mrs. Mehl said she did not know when the couple would return.

None of the relatives of the bride were able to say why the wedding was postposed from Monday until yestercay. Mrs. Mehl said she thought her daughter had but married Monday until yestercay. Mrs. Mehl said she had not inquired about the particulars of the wedding. She said that Mr. and Mrs. Esders will make their home in Texas.

BOTH FELL INTO BASEMENTS.

Two Men Have Broken Bones as a

Two men are at the City Hospital with broken bones that are the results of falls into basements. One of the men, John Roberts, has a slightly fractured skull and two or three broken ribs; the other, George Adams, has a broken femur. Both accidents happened yesterday afternoon.

Roberts is an engineer in the employ of the Thomas Elevator Company and was at work on the first floor of a new building that is being erected on Fourth street and between Olive end Locust streets. Shortly after I olciock he stepped on the end of a loose plank, which tipped, and he fell into the basement. He walked to the City Dispensary, where his wounds were given a temporary dressing, and he was hurried to the City Hospital. His injuries are not expected to result fatally.

How risk and so flow of the padded fist did not enter into it at all.

The petulant poke of the padded fist did not enter into it at all.

The principals were Fitzsimmons and Armstrong—blonde Bob and block Bob. With his highly important engagement with the header with a state of the padded fist did not enter into it at all.

The principals were Fitzsimmons and Armstrong—blonde Bob and block Bob. With his highly important engagement with the highly important engagement with a from the principals were fitzsimmons and Armstrong—blonde Bob and block Bob. With his highly important engagement with the principals were fitzsimmons and termstrong—blonde Bob and block Bob. With his highly important engagement with a from the principals were principals were fitzsimmons and termstrong—blonde Bob and blook Bob. With his highly important engagement with a from the principals were fitz simmons and termstrong—blonde Bob and block Bob. With his highly important engagement with a from the principals were fitz simmons and termstrong—blonde Bob and blook Bob. With his highly important engagement with a from the principals were principals were fitz simmons and termstrong—blonde Bob and blook Bob. With his highly important engagement with a from the principals were fitz simmons and termstrong—blonde Bob and blook Bob. With his highly important engagement with a from the principals were fitz simmons and termstrong—blonde Bob and blook Bob. With his highly important engagement with a from the principal were fitz simmons and the principal were fitz simmons and th pected to result fatally.

Adams's accident occurred some hours Adams's accident occurred some hours later. He was at work in the ice plant at the foot of O'Fallon street, when he lost his footing and fell into the basement. He suffered a broken femur. Adams lives at No. 1912 Papin street. Roberts lives at No. 4245 Pleasant avenue.

IN THE COUNTY.

-The will of Johann H. H. Kruger, who The will of Johann H. H. Kruger, who was buried yesterday morning from the home of his son-in-law, Adolph Foelsch, in Wellston, was filed in the Probate Court at Clayton yesterday. The testator bequeathed $50 to his grandson, Joseph Uhl; $600 to his daughter, Louise Foelsch; $600 to another daughter, Mary Hecht; $50 to each of his grandchildren, Heinrich, Adolph and Lena Meyer; $500 to a niece, Mary Meyer, and the residue to Louise Foelsch and Mary Hecht and the children of Matilda Meyer. In the will he asked that he be buried in St. Peter's Evangelical Cemetery. John Hecht was appointed executor. Hecht was appointed executor.

-Doctor John D. Pfister of Creve Coeur esterday received notice from Washing-on of his appointment as a member of the Board of Examining Pension Surgeons in St. Louis County. Doctor Pfister, who was appointed to succeed Doctor Rouse, who re-signed to move to Bainbridge, Ga., is a Democrat.

-Anton Winsnefke yesterday swore out a warrant before Justice Greensfelder against Albert Hardy, charging assault and bat-tery. Both Winsnefke and Hardy are em-ployes of the Suburban Railroad Company and engaged in a fight yesterday morning in the power-house at De Hodiamont. Har-dy was arrested by Constable Conwas arrested by Constable Gru-ninger d gave bond in the sum of $300 to appear

The young couple always together before marriage rarely keep up this happy intimacy as man and wife. They are not tired of each other, but the young wife finds herself weak and languid, with no inclination for exercise. And thus begins a division of pursuits and interests which often ends in divided lives. The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong. It stops the drains which undermine the strength, cures "female weakness," nourishes the nerves and gives vigor to the whole body.

There is neither opium, cocaine or other narcotic in "Favorite Prescrip-

"I suffered from female weakness about eight years—tried several doctors, but derived no benefit until I began using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. John Green, of Danville, Boyle Co., Ky. "This medicine was recommended to me by other patients, I have taken six bottles, and I feel like another person."

Free. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, 700 illustrations, is sent free, on receipt of stamps, to cover expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

SHARKEY YIELDS TO CUPID'S LOVE TAPS.

Miss Jennie Tuttle, Slim, Black-Eyed and Just Nineteen, to Be His Bride.

BELLE OF SHEEPSHEAD BAY."

Wedding Is Set for This Week-A Handsome Chicago Widow Is Left at the Post-Tom's Wooing.

distantly related to the late John Y. Mc-

The story of the reported woolng and engagement dates back to the time when Sharkey was in training for his fight with Ruhlin. Miss Tuttle is employed in a wholesale grocery house near where Sharkey lives. It was his usual custom on his return from a "dip" in the bay or a run, to do his own shopping. In this manner he met the dark-eyed, vivacious cashier, and a warm attachment is said to have resulted. This was helped along by Shar-key's sister, who keeps house for him and who is a warm friend of her prospective sister-in-law.

There were frequent drives in Sharkey's handsome turnout. Every day the two could be seen driving along the boulevard behind Tom's fast trotters. Rumors flew thick and fast until to-day, when a close friend of Miss Tuttle acknowledged that the two were to be married. The wedding, he said, would be held this week, but the exact date has not been given out, as it is said to be the young lady's wish to have it kept secret.

ered handsome. Since childhood she has held the undisputed title of being the prettiest girl in Sheepshead Bay. She has a sliggt, trim figure and is 5 feet 6 inches tall. She has large, justrous, black eyes and equally black hair. Socially she is faolized, and no function is complete or considered a success unless she is pres-ent.

SPARRED WITHOUT STRIKING. Fitzsimmons's Latest Innovation at His Training Exercises. BY W. W. NAUGHTON.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, Aug. 7 .- A sparring motch in which never a blow is struck would not appeal to the general run of ring-goers. On the contrary, it would invite derision. Still, a large assemblage became amazingly interested in an affair of that kind at Bergen Beach to-day. It was what the mu-sically inclined might call a song without words. The petulant poke of the padded

Phantom fisticuffs has taken its place and to-day saw the beginning of the new order of things. To the uninitiated the sient set-to was simply something which afforded both men an opportunity of doing fast foot work. To the practiced eye it was a great deal more was a great deal more.

was a great deal more.

Armstrong is a clever, dashing boxer, with good aim and wonderful reach. Fitz-simmons possesses the same qualifications, and is, besides, a strategist of the highest order. It was Armstrong's straightaway methods organize living the property of the control of the highest order. order. It was Armstrong's straightaway methods against Fitzsimmons's knowledge of the tricks of the trade.

The mock battle was active from the jump. It was a whirl of undelivered blows and folis for blows, and it held the attention of the watchers through four three-minute rounds.

Gloves were halted frequently within an luch of the face.

Inch of the face. Cross-counters were with-held, when intent, apparently, on banging against ear or chin, and heart punches came to a sudden stop a wee bit shy of the mark. Each man made mistakes at times and looked as embarrassed as if aroused to a sense of neglect by a solid punch in the Fitzsimmons laid all kinds of snares for his dusky colleague. He side-stepped and shifted and balked, but the other hob, bent-browed and alert, wheeled and skipped and kept the tricky Cornishman at bay. At the very end of the bout Fitzsimmons triumphed. He left an opening, but it was only a ruse, Around came the colored fellow's left for the seemingly unprotected head. Had contact appeared inevitable, he would have taken a rap as usual, but this time the head wasn't there. It had disappeared and a face was grinning at him across his ellow. Fitzsimmons laid all kinds of snares for

At the same instant Fitzsimmons's sweat-odden glove rested against Armstrong's Jaw.
"You fell into a trap that time," said

"You fell into a trap that the, sale Fitzsimmons, exultingly,
"That's what I did," murmured Arm-strong, abashed, as he made for his chair.
It was a fast exhibition, and both men ware streaming with perspiration at the were streaming with perspiration at the close.

"When you're boxing you can hold on and rest awhile." explained Fitzsimmons. "In this kind of a thing, though, you have to keep going." Fitzsimmons then went in for two six-minute spells of pulling and hauling with Geoff Thorn. When it was all over Bob breathed easily and naturally. Evidently his "wind" is in perfect shape.

The whole man, in fact, shows evidence of careful, systematic training. He is a shambling, fiat-muscled wight as he glides after his opponent, but once there is a gripping match the latent strength apwere streaming with perspiration at the snambling, flat-muscled wight as he glides after his opponent, but once there is a gripping match the latent strength appears. His bleeps become flinty mounds, his forearms suggest thick wire ropes and on his back and over his shoulder blades sinewy strands and bulbs stand out so thinck and tangled that one wonders where he stores them in times of peace.

From the character of Fitzsimmons's exercises it is evident that he is going to make a more careful fight than he did with Jeffries. There will be no walking up to the chanon's mouth this time and enduring Jeffries. There will be no walking up to the cannon's mouth this time and enduring a galling fire in the hope of getting in one settling smash. He may go close to Ruh-lin, at that, but he will go with his head full of defensive ideas, with his knowledge of ducking and drawing away nowledge ducking and drawing away revamped and in the full determination to smite without being smitten.

He may have some difficulty in luring Ruhlin into one of his many traps, but he will not remain within range while thinking up something new. He will be as shifty a Fitzsimmons as ever peered over a glove. Otherwise, a whole lot of giltedge practice and coaching has been thrown away. in the full determination to smite thrown away.

The training of both men has practically ended, and during the few days that remain each will confine himself to sufficient exercise to keep on edge.

Fitzsimmons was waited upon by the results of the confine himself and the sufficient exercise to keep on edge. Fitzsimmons was waited upon by the moving-picture man this morning. The Cornishman swam, threw the medicine ball. sparred with his partners and performed other features before the camera, the purpose being to use the pictures as a preface to the views which are to be taken on the night of the fight.

Hotter days Com

News comes to us from Paris that the great astronomer of the French Government, Abbe Mareaux, has just discovered a sun-spot 25,000 miles in diameter. This astronomer predicts that other spots will be discovered during the next two months, making August and September extremely hot.

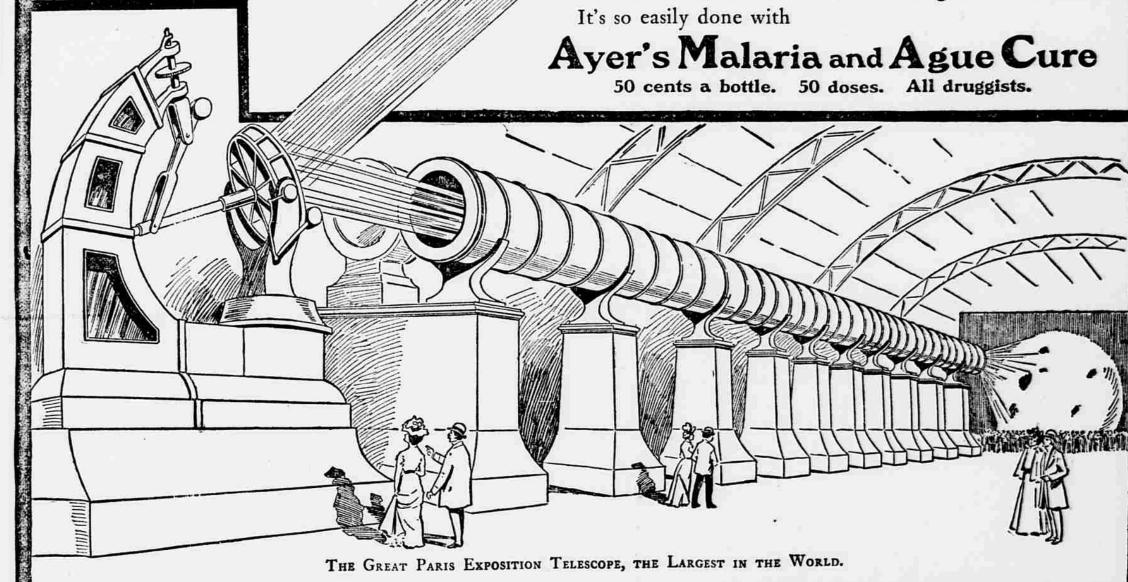

Another equally great astronomer, Flammarion, says that heat from the sun varies in proportion to the spots. That is, "the more spots, the hotter the sun."

Prepare for Them.

Do not overeat; do not partake too freely of iced drinks; wear light and loose clothing. And take daily doses of Ayer's Malaria and Ague Cure.

Of course you will know it's hot, but the heat will not debilitate and prostrate if you keep your nervous system toned up and invigorated with Ayer's Malaria and Ague Cure.

Malaria germs thrive under a boiling sun! But a teaspoonful of Ayer's Malaria and Ague Cure before each meal will prove a positive preventive to all forms of malarial trouble. Get the start of the heat; cheat the germs of malaria.

the road she had traversed measured 4,500 miles. She had ridden in a month a distance that would have carried her across the American Continent or over the Atlantic Ocean and half way back again. No man or woman in the world had ever ridden a bicycle nearly so far by hundreds and even time.

When the finish came, however, there when the linish came, nowever, there was not the slightest evidence of weariness or physical strain. There jumped gaily from the bicycle a bright-eyed, light-footed, hundred-pound woman-not a drowsy sufferer or a shattered human wreck.
"I really feel better than when I started," sald she. "When I have had any trouble it has been with my limbs and wrists and has been with my thinks and wrists and occasionally with my back. Drowslness has not troubled me a bit."

To-night Mrs. Bayne attended a reception in her honor by the people of Valley Stream and seemed none the worse for her long journey.

FAMILY A MARK FOR DEATH.

Last Victim, the Father, Was Killed by a Street Car.

Coroner Armstrong of St. Louis County yesterday concluded the inquest over William Rexhausen, who was killed last Friday night by a street car on the Midland Rall-way tracks near Ascalon. The jury re-turned a verdict of accident and exonerated the railroad company from blame. Rexnausen's funeral took place yesterday morning from his home on the Fee Fee road. The body was buried in the new Wesroad. The body was buried in the new Wesleyan Cemetery, just west of Sutter on the Olive Street road.

The Rexhausen family troubles for the last four years make an unusual story. The family had struggled against adversity for years, and when air. Rexhausen finally got comfortably located on his St. Louis county farm his wife died. This was four years ago. The next year, Jessie Rexhausen's husband, John Bolgard, a baker living at No. 422 Grove avenue, was killed by an electric shock. The following year another son-in-law, Phillip Becker, was drowned while on a fishing trip near Grafton. About while on a fishing trip near Grafton. About a year ago Mr. Rexhausen's sister died. Eight months ago he lost a niece. SHOOK HANDS WITH BRYAN.

Jimmy Oliver Says New York Will Go Democratic.

Chicago, Aug. 7 .- Jimmy Oliver of New York and Paradise Park was here long enough to greet Bryan and give Mrs. Bryan

Completes Forty-Five Centuries in Thirty Days and Is Well.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, Aug. 7.—Mrs. Emma R. Bayne completed her forty-fifth century awheel in thirty days at exactly 10 o'clock to-night.

Five hundred century riding fanatics welcomed her with fireworks at Halley Stream, L. I., the scene of her great ride.

For thirty consecutive days has this little mite of a woman been riding centuries or double centuries daily until the length of the make the Republicans run to cover."

a basket of roses.

"I'm on my way to the Klondike," said he. "I hope, however, to be back in New York in time to be one of the 50,000 majority which New York State will give for Bryan. If I get my gold mine back I'll bet it all that Bryan gets the biggest majority south of the Hariem ever given a presidential candidate.

"Just pass the word over the wire that Jimmy Oliver shook hands with Bryan to-day and won't be able tot get his fingers untangled for a week. Bryan is bigger and stronger than ever, and a look at him is enough to make the Republicans run to cover."

BAILEY-HOGG CONTROVERSY.

Statement by Cullen F. Thomas, County Attorney.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Waco, Tex., Aug. 7 .- Anent the controversy over the issuance of the permit to the new Waters Pierce Oil Company, Cullen F. Thomas, County Attorney of Mc-Lennan County, makes a statement tonight, detailing the proceedings of conferences of himself, Congressman J. W. Bailey, Congressman R. L. Henry and his law partner, O. L. Stribling, and District Judge S. R. Scott, H. C. Pierce of the Waters Pierce Oil Company and J. D. Johnson of St. Louis, attorney for Mr. Pierce, looking to the compromise of the penalty suits pend-ing in the District Court here, and the dising in the District Court here, and the dismissal of the criminal prosecution against Mr. Pierce and other members of the oil company for violation of the anti-trust law. Mr. Thomas says that the first overtures for a settlement came from Congressman Bailey May 3 this year; that Mr. Failey said he was requested by St. Louis friends to do what he could to help the Waters Pierce Oil Company adjust their troubles in Texas. On the same day Mr. Thomas had a conference with Henry and Stribling and Judge Scott. Henry and Stribling had a contract with the State, made by Mr. Thomas's predecessor, which allowed them 10 per cent of the amount of the judgments secured in the penalty cases, and under this contract the suits were brought. Mr. Thomas says that at the conference Henry and Stribling proposed to compromise the suits for a judgment of $10,000, stating that they were to get an extra fee of $2,000 from suits for a judgment of shows, stating that they were to get an extra fee of $2,000 from defendants, and that they would relinquish to the County Attorney their interest in the 10 per cent of the judgment.

Mr. Thomas says he declined to agree to the compromise and told Stribling and Henry that he thought the extra fee to be raid by the defendants was improper.

paid by the defendants was improper.

Later, on the same day, he held a conference with Henry and Stribling, Mr.

Pierce and Mr. Balley. No conclusion was reached and the conference ended, Mr.

Thomas asking $25,000 and Mr. Pierce offering $10,000. No further conference was had until June 1, the day following the filing of the new charter at Austin. At that conference Mr. Pierce said he had settled matters satisfactorily at Austin, had secured an agreement with Henry and Stribling to compromise the penalty suits for $10,000, he to pay them $3,000, and that he wanted the criminal prosecution dismissed. Mr. Thomas declined to accept either proposition and the negotiations closed.

The statement has caused intense excitement here. There is talk of personal difficulpaid by the defendants was improper.

The statement has caused intense excitement here. There is talk of personal difficulties, and the language used by some of the politicians warrant it. Mr. Bailey is here and has a large number of stanch friends around him. Ex-Governor Hogg and Waller S. Baker of this city are backing Thomas. The State Convention opens to-morrow and a lurid session is looked for.

Attorney General's Defense.
REPUBLIC SPECIAL. RFFUBLIC SPECIAL.

Hillsboro, Tex., Aug. 7.—The attack made upon Attorney General Smith before the meeting of the State Bar Association at Galveston recently on his decision affecting the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, has attracted more attention than was supposed. In a letter to a friend recently, Attorney General Smith had this to say on the sub-

"It is not now, and it has not been, and It is not now, and it has not been, and it never will be, the policy of the Attorney General's office of Texas to confiscate anybody's property, reb them or unjustly drive them from the State. This company has over 200 stations in Texas doing business, and to absolutely deprive them of any consideration whatever would entail great less to them; so offer consulting my superior sideration whatever wound entail great loss to them; so, after consulting my superior officer, I submitted to the oil company a proposition that if they accepted and there-by increased their capital, a permit would be issued. They accepted, and I acted.

"Another thing, there was not at that time sufficient oil in Texas to supply the demand for ten days, and to run them out would have thrown the entire State in ut-ter darkness.
"All these things considered, I did what I considered best for the oil company and my people, and I am not afraid to face them."

"KING" SEIBT IN TROUBLE.

Little Oklahoma's Former Ruler

Arrested in Venice. Louis Seibt, former King of Little Oklahoma, in North St. Louis, who recently disposed of his houseboat and went to Venice to live, has been arrested by the Venice authorities for selling liquor without a license.
Immediately after Seibt went to Venice with his retinue, he was notified not to squat upon the property of the Madison County Ferry Company, along the river When he stopped there, regardless of this notification, complaint was made to the police, and in the raid Monday night several old houseboats were set fire to and demolished. Selbt, with a beer keg as evidence against him, was taken to Venice. He was seen in the jail there yesterday afternoon. He denies having sold any liquor.

CALLS IT ALL NONSENSE. Harper Would Not Discuss His

Cheap Living Plan. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Chicago, Aug. 7 .- William D. Harper. president of the University of Chicago, had just finished an hour's exposition of difficult passages in the lives of ancient Hecult passages in the lives of ancient Hebrew prophets when approached with reference to his reperted pian for living on iscents a day. Elijah, who was fed by the ravens, had been under discussion, and President Harper was in no mood to take a humorous view of the matter.

"All nonsense; absolutely absurd. I refuse to discuss such a preposterous matter," said Doctor Harper.

The head of the university, surrounded by an admiring group of divinity students, was sweeping out of a lower room of Haskell Hall.

sweeping out of a lower to enter upon the Hall.

"When are you going to enter upon the experiment of living on 15 cents a day?" was the question ventured.

Doctor Harper promptly characterized the suggestion as "all nonsense," and intimated the impossibility of a family—at least, his family—setting up such a standard of fruestifty.

WILL CHARGE NO WEDDING FEE. Justice Boneau of Belleville Has Changed Old Custom.

Justice of the Peace Benjamin J. Boneau of Belleville, Ill., announced yesterday afternoon that he would marry all couples free of charge who called at his office in the basement of the Courthouse at that place.

Metely a desire to have all the weddings possible take place in Belleville is the reason Judge Boneau gives for his change from the long-established rules of the Magistrates and the clergy. A few years ago, when there was hot rivalry among the Justices of Belleville for weddings, Justice Boneau caused consternation by advertising that he would perform the marriage ceremony free of charge. The Judge marriad a great many couples, and continued the free ceremony for several months, until he was basement of the Courthouse at that place. ceremony for several months, until he was persuaded by the other Justices to cease.

FAIRCHILDS'S BOOKS CORRECT. Disappearance of Clover Leaf Agent Remains a Mystery.

The disappearance of H. C. Fairchilds, agent for the Toledo, St. Louis and Western, or Clover Leaf road, at New Douglas. Ill., remains unsolved. Fairchilds has been Ill., remains unsolved. Fairchilds has been missing two weeks.

Two weeks ago Monday he told some of his friends he was going to St. Louis for the day, but would be back on the evening train. He has not been seen since.

Fairchilds was a good business man, and his accounts, as checked up by Auditor Henson, are all straight. His successor, A. H. Neff of Fillmore, was checked in yesterday, but the road will continue its endeavor to locate the missing man, as it is

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES.

The Presbyterian Woman's Board of Foreign Missions for the Southwest held its bimonthly meeting yesterday at No. 1516 Locust street. The feature of the meting was a paper by Mrs. Sarah E. Lindsay on "Thy Kingdom Come." In the absence of the president, Mrs. Hopkins, Mrs. W. H. Bates of Webster Groves presided. A letter from the General Foreign Mission Board, summarizing the situation as to Presby-terian missionaries in China, was read, and Mrs. Biggers led in a special prayer in their

The thirty-third annual convention of the The thirty-third annual convention of the Missouri Sunday School Association will be held at Columbia, Mo., August 28, 29 and 30. The citizens of Columbia are arranging to entertain all certified delegates to the convention, and the St. Louis Sunday School Union is getting up a special excursion for the city and suburbs. The speakers of national reputation engaged for the occasion are: C. D. Meiggs, Mrs. Mary Foster Bryner and Marion A. Lawrence, R. O. Bolt will have charge of the music and Miss Grace Alexander has been appointed organist.

lowing the entertainment, ice cream and cake will be served.

There will be a gold medal W. C. T. U. oratorical contest at the Memorial Tabernacle Presbyterian Church at Fifteenth and Carr streets next Friday evening, August 10. A small admission fee will be charged to cover incidental expenses.

St. Leo's Parish will give a picule a reunion at Spanish Lake next Sunday. The programme for the occasion includes boat-ing, fishing and games; also a "fine pavillen dancing the light fantastic." Trains Union Station at 9:15 a. m. and 1:3

BRESCI'S BROTHER HELD.

Italian Police Follow Up the An archist Plot Theory.

Rome, Aug. 7.-The brother and brother in-law of Bresci, the assassin of King Hum-bert of Italy, have been detained by the police on the charge that they had fore-knowledge of the murderer's intention. The former says Bresci frequently prac-ticed with a ranger ticed with a revolver.

All together fifty-two suspected anarchists have been placed under arrest within the last forty-eight hours.

MISS CAZZE IDENTIFIED.

New York, Aug. 7.—Anent the arrest in Rome of Mary Cazze in connection with the plot to kill King Humbert, and an alleged confession from her, it is now stated that she is probably the same girl who was known in Paterson, N. J., as Emma Quazzi and who lived for a long time in Paterson. Her father still lives there and says that undoubtedly the girl mentioned in the cablegram is his pretty daughter, Emma.

This conclusion does not rest altogether upon the judgment of Mr. Quazzi. He has evidence in the form of a letter written by the girl on May 28 and malled at a later date in Italy. In this letter Emma Quazzi says that she met a very nice young man on the steamer named Gaetano Bresci. She speaks of the fact that Bresci had worked in Paterson and that it was strange that she had not met him before.

According to further statements in the letter the young girl had been for eight days MISS CAZZE IDENTIFIED.

ter the young girl had been for eight days in close companionship with Bresci at the date of writing. $9.50 Put-In-Bay and Return Vin Clover-Lenf Route. Last excursion of the season. Ticket of-

e. 505 Olive street. Trotting Results at Independence.

Independence, Ia., Aug. 7 .- Results of to-day's independence, 1a., Aug. 1. Results freezes.

2:19 trot, $1.600-Controllo won first, second and fifth heats and race. Best time 2:12½, Early Renper, second; Miss Lycurgus, third. Emma Foote and Harbor Master also started.

2:25 pare, 1600-Mayor Muscovite won in straight heats. Fest time 2:13%, and the straight heats. Gamin, second. Best time, 2:12½.

CHANGE OF VENUE RULING-Justice entertain all certified delegates to the convention, and the St. Louis Sunday School Union is getting up a special excursion for the city and suburbs. The speakers of national reputation engaged for the occasion are: C. D. Meigrs, Mrs. Mary Foster Bryner and Marion A. Lawrence, R. O. Bolt will have charge of the music and Miss Grace Alexander has been appointed organist.

The Levee Mission has arranged to give a special entertainment to its two Sunday schools next Saturday at No. 4 North Levee from 5 to 7 p. m. Immediately follows.